

ATTORNEYS REPRESENTING COUNCIL IN BUDGET AUTONOMY LITIGATION

Karen I. Dunn, Partner
(202) 895-5235
kdunn@bsfillp.com

BOIES, SCHILLER & FLEXNER LLP

Karen L. Dunn is an attorney who has worked in all three branches of government and on several high-profile political campaigns; she has extensive experience working at the intersection of policy, law, communications, and politics. Currently, she is a Partner at the law firm Boies, Schiller & Flexner, where she focuses her practice on high-profile civil and criminal litigation, crisis management, and government response.

Prior to entering private practice, Ms. Dunn served as an Assistant United States Attorney in the Eastern District of Virginia where she was assigned to a unit prosecuting international crime and terrorism. Ms. Dunn also served as an Associate Counsel in the White House Counsel's Office, where she worked as part of a team to confirm Justice Sonia Sotomayor, and as a law clerk to Supreme Court Justice Stephen G. Breyer and DC Circuit Judge Merrick B. Garland.

Ms. Dunn has also worked as a political and communications strategist. In this capacity, she managed debate preparation for President Barack Obama's re-election campaign and for Senator Cory Booker's race in her home state. She also worked as Deputy to the Chief Strategist for President Obama's 2008 presidential campaign and, before that, Communications Director to then-Senator Hillary Rodham Clinton as well as Press Secretary on Clinton's 2000 Senate race.

Ms. Dunn earned her JD from Yale Law School and her BA in Political Science from Brown University.

Brian D. Netter
(202) 263-3339
bnetter@mayerbrown.com

MAYER • BROWN

Brian Netter is a partner in the Washington, DC office of Mayer Brown's Supreme Court & Appellate practice. He concentrates on briefing and arguing complex and high-stakes issues in federal and state appellate courts. His experience covers a broad range of substantive areas, but he has particular expertise in administrative law and ERISA. He has argued seven cases in the US Courts of Appeals and state appellate courts.

Brian also practices in the trial courts and participates in internal investigations, drawing on his training in industrial and operations engineering to assist with matters involving quantitative analysis.

He was previously a law clerk to Associate Justice Stephen Breyer on the US Supreme Court and to Judge Judith W. Rogers on the US Court of Appeals for the DC Circuit.