Councilmember David Grosso announces the scheduling of a public roundtable of the Committee on Education on Educational Challenges Facing D.C. in the Age of Trump. The roundtable will be held from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. on Monday, July 10, 2017 in the Columbia Heights Education Campus auditorium.

The purpose of this public roundtable is to engage the community on the issues that the District of Columbia faces under the Trump presidency regarding how federal policies affect students' human right to education, the strength of the public education system in D.C., and the well-being and academic success of students, their families, schools and staff, and child development centers and staff. Notice has been revised at the request of the Secretary of the Council of the District of Columbia.

The Committee invites the public to testify or submit written testimony. Those who wish to testify may sign-up online at <http://bit.do/CommunityForum> or call the Committee on Education at (202) 724-8061 by 5:00pm Friday, July 7. Persons wishing to testify are encouraged to bring 10 copies of their written testimony.

If you are unable to testify at the hearing, written statements are encouraged and will be made a part of the official record. Written statements should be submitted to by email to astrange@dccouncil.us or by post to the Committee on Education, Council of the District of Columbia, Suite 116 of the John A. Wilson Building, 1350 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20004.
