7500 SCOPE

7500.1 The provisions of this chapter shall provide the application process, eligibility criteria, benefit and payment levels, and appeal procedures for the Emergency Rental Assistance Program (Program).

7500.2 Nothing in these rules shall be interpreted to mean that such assistance is an entitlement. This Program shall be subject to annual appropriations and the availability of funds.

7500.3 The Department of Human Services (Department) may execute contracts, grants, and agreements as necessary to carry out the Program.

7501 APPLICATION PROCESS

7501.1 Each application shall be in writing on a form prescribed by the Department and signed by the applicant under penalty of perjury. If the applicant is married and living with a spouse, both spouses shall sign the application as an applicant unit (hereinafter “applicant”).

7501.2 An authorized representative may apply on behalf of the applicant, if the applicant provides a written and signed statement stating why the applicant cannot apply in person and the name and address of the person authorized to act on the applicant’s behalf.

7501.3 The Department shall provide application forms and the provider of services shall accept applications from each applicant who requests assistance.

7501.4 At the time of application, each applicant shall be provided with a clear, concise, written notice containing the applicant’s rights and responsibilities and the provider’s responsibilities with respect to the Program.
7501.5 As a condition of eligibility of receipt of funds, all applicants must sign a document acknowledging receipt of the notice of applicant’s rights and responsibilities and the provider’s responsibilities and a release form authorizing the provider to obtain or verify information necessary to processing the application.

7501.6 If, pursuant to 7503.2, the provider determines that case management is necessary to ensure that the applicant addresses the circumstances which led to the need for emergency rental assistance, the applicant, as a condition of eligibility, shall agree to participate in such case management. Failure to agree to or cooperate in such case management may result in ineligibility.

7501.7 Each applicant shall cooperate fully in establishing his or her eligibility, the nature of the emergency, and the extent of the need. This shall include, but not be limited to, providing documentation or collateral proof of:

(a) Household composition;
(b) Income and assets;
(c) Household expenses; and
(d) Facts and circumstances surrounding rental arrearages.

7501.8 The provider shall give to each applicant a written request specifying the information needed to complete the application and the provider shall discuss with the applicant how to obtain the information. The application is complete when all required information is furnished.

7501.9 If requested by an applicant with a disability, or the authorized representative of an applicant with a disability, the provider shall assist such applicant or authorized representative with any aspect of the application process necessary to ensure that the applicant with a disability has an equal opportunity to submit an application.

7501.10 The provider may use documents, telephone conversations, personal and collateral interviews, reports, correspondence, and conferences to verify applicant information.

7501.11 The provider shall complete the eligibility and assistance determination in as short a time as possible but not later than ten (10) calendar days after the date of a completed application. The provider shall not be responsible for delays caused by:

(a) The applicant’s failure to supply information to document facts stated in the completed application without which eligibility cannot be determined;
(b) The inability to contact the applicant;

(c) Evidence of misrepresentation in the application;

(d) Refusal of a landlord to accept payments;

(e) Delay by a third party from whom the provider has requested information and over whom the provider has no control; or

(f) Any other delay in receipt of information or documentation necessary to complete the application over which the provider has no control.

7501.12 If the emergency is expected to occur in less than ten (10) calendar days following the date of application, the provider shall take all reasonable steps to process the application in an expedited manner in time to resolve the emergency, if the applicant meets all eligibility criteria and a delay in processing the application is not caused by the failure of the applicant to provide documentation necessary for making an eligibility or assistance determination.

7501.13 If an applicant is determined eligible for emergency rental assistance, the provider shall give to the applicant a Notice of Eligibility and Assistance Determination. This notice shall include, but need not be limited to:

(a) A clear statement of the eligibility determination;

(b) A clear and detailed statement of the amount of the emergency rental assistance for which the applicant unit has been determined eligible and the computation of assistance pursuant to section 7504;

(c) Any requirement needed from the recipient to authorize the provider to proceed with the disbursement of the emergency rental assistance grant to the appropriate vendors as necessary to alleviate the emergency; and

(d) A clear and complete statement of the client's right to appeal the eligibility or assistance determination through fair hearing and administrative review proceedings pursuant to section 7510, including the appropriate deadlines for instituting the appeal and the procedural rights the applicant will have during the appeals process.

7501.14 If an applicant is determined ineligible, the provider shall give to the applicant a Notice of Denial of Eligibility. This notice shall include, but need not be limited to:

(a) A clear statement of the denial of eligibility;

(b) A clear and detailed statement of the factual basis for the denial;
(c) A reference to the regulation or policy pursuant to which denial was made; and

(d) A clear and complete statement of the client's right to appeal the determination or denial through fair hearing and administrative review proceedings pursuant to section 7510, including the appropriate deadlines for instituting the appeal and the procedural rights the applicant will have during the appeals process.

7501.15 An application shall be considered abandoned if the applicant has not obtained and provided to the provider the required information for eligibility and assistance determination within sixty (60) days.

7502 APPLICANT UNIT

7502.1 The applicant unit shall be composed of each individual who lives in the same household and whose needs, assets, and income are combined to determine eligibility.

7502.2 The applicant unit shall include:

(a) Persons related by full or half blood;

(b) Persons related by legal adoption;

(c) Persons related by marriage, including stepchildren and unmarried parents of a common child who live together; or

(d) Persons with legal responsibility for an unrelated minor child, or an unrelated adult with a disability.

7502.3 A person temporarily away from home due to employment, hospitalization, vacation, or a visit shall be considered to be living in the household. A minor child who is away at school is considered to be living in the household if he or she returns to the home on occasional weekends, holidays and during the summer vacations.

7502.4 An applicant unit may be comprised of a single individual, if that individual meets one or more of the eligibility criteria in section 7503.1(b), as well as other eligibility criteria.

7502.5 Separate applicant units shall be established, but processed concurrently, if the requested payment is the joint legal responsibility of non-related household members. Assistance may be authorized only for the applicant unit’s prorated share of the amount necessary to resolve the crisis.
7502.6 The name of a non-household member on a rental lease shall have no effect on eligibility, except that:

(a) The applicant shall document that he or she is responsible for the payment; and

(b) Both the applicant and the landlord shall agree to change the lease to reflect only the applicant’s name.

7503 ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

7503.1 In order to be eligible for assistance under this program, each applicant shall meet the following criteria:

(d) Demonstrate that the provision of emergency rental assistance services will substantially, if not entirely, alleviate the emergency during the thirty (30) day period immediately following the authorization of payment. If the permissible assistance payment does not entirely eliminate the emergency, the applicant shall provide reliable, convincing information that the remaining necessary amount is actually available from another source or that the landlord will accept a partial payment or longer-term repayment plan, which is within the applicant’s financial means to execute. Failure to demonstrate that the emergency can be resolved shall result in a denial of eligibility for emergency rental assistance.
7503.2 An applicant shall agree to and participate in case management services, if the provider determines that the circumstances leading to the emergency remain unresolved. Failure to agree to or cooperate in such case management may result in ineligibility.

7503.3 An applicant shall be living in the District of Columbia at the time of application.

7503.4 The applicant shall be considered to be living in the District if he or she:

(a) Is maintaining a home in the District as his or her principal residence; or

(b) Is homeless, physically present in the District, and not a resident of another state.

7503.5 An adult applicant shall be denied emergency rental assistance if the emergency is the result of his or her refusal without “good cause” to accept employment or training for employment.

(a) Voluntarily quit employment or a bona fide training program within three (3) months prior to application; or

7503.7 “Good Cause” reasons for voluntarily quitting a job or not participating in an employment training program include circumstances beyond the individual’s control, such as, but not limited to, the following, when the applicant can show, with reliable or credible information, that:

(a) Wages are below the minimum wage;

(b) The applicant is physically or mentally unable to perform the work or gain access to the worksite;

(c) Working conditions violate health, safety, or worker’s compensation regulations and present a substantial risk to health or safety;

of D.C. Official Code § 2-1401.01 et seq. (D.C. Law 2-38, effective December 13, 1977);

(e) The requirements of the job would be contrary to his or her religious beliefs;

(f) There existed a household emergency (including domestic violence);

(g) The resignation is recognized by the employer as retirement;

(h) Child care, which is necessary for the adult applicant to accept work or training, is not available; or

(i) The applicant could not maintain work or participate in a training program because it was necessary for the applicant to take care of a family member who is either ill or has a disability.

7503.8 The applicant unit’s combined net income, as specified in section 7503.10, in the thirty (30) day period immediately preceding the date of application, and non-excluded assets, as specified in section 7503.15, on the date of application, must not exceed one hundred and twenty-five percent (125%) of the monthly Federal Poverty Level as defined by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services for the specified household size.

(f) The applicable maximum allowable payment as provided in these rules.

7504.2 The following sequential calculation shall be used to determine the amount of emergency rental assistance:

(a) The applicant unit’s income certain to be received within thirty (30) days following the date of application shall be determined. If there is a live Writ of Restitution or the landlord will not accept partial payment, only the income certain to be received until the expected occurrence of the emergency shall be considered;

(b) The applicant unit’s anticipated expenses for basic necessities and fixed monthly expenses in the thirty (30) days following the date of application shall be determined;

(c) The anticipated expenses shall be subtracted from the anticipated income;

(d) Any surplus resulting from the calculation in paragraph (c) shall be added to any liquid assets to determine the applicant’s contribution; and
(e) The applicant’s contribution shall be subtracted from the amount necessary to resolve the emergency.

7504.3 The emergency rental assistance payment shall be equal to the amount computed under section 7504.2, subject to the applicable maximum limits for emergency rental assistance as stated in these rules.

7505.4 Only in those rare circumstances where payment is required by the landlord or other controlling government authority, including but not limited to a court or federal marshals, to be in cash may the emergency rental assistance benefit be in the form of cash. In all other cases, the emergency rental assistance benefit shall be in the form of non-cash direct vendor payments.

7506 EMERGENCY ASSISTANCE—RENT ARREARAGES

7506.1 Assistance may be authorized to pay a rent arrearage, late fee and associated court fees if each of the following conditions are met:

(a) Eviction is imminent and documented by a Landlord and Tenant Court summons or referral, Writ of Restitution, Notice to Vacate, or correspondence from the landlord or his or her agent documenting that the applicant is a tenant and has a current rent arrearage of at least 30 days past due;

(b) The arrearage must be that of the applicant. If the lease or rental agreement is not in the applicant’s name, he or she must provide documentation that he or she is responsible for the arrearage. Both the applicant and the landlord must agree to change the lease to the applicant’s name;

(e) The total assistance payment (including rent arrearage, late fee and any associated court fees) may not exceed four thousand two hundred fifty dollars ($4,250).

7506.2 Notwithstanding the requirements in section 7506.1, certain requirements may be waived with respect to the total maximum payment and the number of months of the arrearage which may be paid for with emergency rental assistance funds, if extraordinary circumstances exist.

7506.3 The requirements in section 7506.1 may be waived up to the maximums specified in section 7506.4, if one (1) or more of the following mitigating factors is determined to exist:

(a) The household consists of seven (7) or more members and reasonable alternatives to the existing housing arrangement are not available; or

(b) A member of the household has a physical or mental disability, a medically documented incapacity or extended illness to the extent that loss of existing housing would pose a serious threat to the health or safety of the family member.

7506.4 If the requirements specified in section 7506.3 are met:

(a) The total maximum emergency rental assistance payment may be increased from four thousand two hundred fifty dollars ($4,250) to six thousand dollars ($6,000); and

(b) The arrearage that may be paid with emergency rental assistance funds may exceed five (5) months, if the total amount does not exceed the total maximum amount specified in paragraph (a) of this subsection.

housing, or the forced sale of the currently dwelling, and there are no other means, other than through the provision of this assistance, whereby new housing could be secured.

7507.2 The maximum emergency assistance payment for a security or damage deposit shall be the actual amount of the deposit, which may not exceed more than the cost of one (1) month’s unsubsidized rent, as specified by the landlord up to nine hundred dollars ($900).

7507.3 Any applicant coming directly from a transitional housing program that requires an escrow account for purposes of obtaining permanent housing, shall demonstrate why they do not have sufficient resources available for security deposit and first month’s rent.

7507.4 The security or damage deposit payment shall be made directly to the landlord.

7507.5 Where the emergency was a result of eviction or displacement from a residence in the District of Columbia, assistance under sections 7507 and 7508 may be used for relocating to another jurisdiction within the greater Washington area as defined by the boundaries of the District of Columbia and its contiguous counties in the states of Maryland and Virginia.

7508 EMERGENCY ASSISTANCE – FIRST MONTH’S RENT

7508.1 Assistance may be authorized for the first month’s rent if the applicant is:

(a) Eligible for a security deposit payment as specified in section 7507; and

(b) The first month’s rent must be paid in conjunction with the security deposit in order for the applicant to assume tenancy, and the applicant has no other means of paying for the first month’s rent at the time it is required.

7508.2 The maximum emergency assistance payment for first month’s rent under this section shall not exceed the lesser of either the actual amount of one (1) month’s unsubsidized rent, as specified by the landlord, or nine hundred dollars ($900).

Law 16-35, D.C.
