Councilmember Elissa Silverman, Chairperson of the Committee on Labor and Workforce Development, announces a public oversight hearing before the Committee on the District's unemployment compensation program during the COVID-19 pandemic and B23-500, the Unemployment Compensation Employer Classification Amendment Act of 2019. Note: This notice has been revised to include B23-500 as one of the covered topics

In March 2020, as local businesses began to implement measures to slow the spread of COVID-19, the District passed legislation expanding eligibility for unemployment benefits to workers who otherwise would not qualify.¹ The United States Congress expanded access to unemployment, boosted benefits payments, and provided supplementary funding to states workforce agencies via the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act. Between March 13, 2020, and July 15, 2020, the Department of Employment Services (DOES) received more than 128,000 applications for unemployment benefits. During this time, an overwhelming number of individuals and businesses also reached out to their Councilmembers with questions and concerns regarding the unemployment insurance system. At this hearing, the Committee will hear testimony about the District's response to the steep increase in unemployment claims caused by the pandemic. In addition, the hearing will consider B23-500 which aims to align District law with the requirements of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act by clarifying that government entities and instrumentalities may make payments into the District Unemployment Fund.
